

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Ladies! For Jet ornaments, go to L. B. Kerr's.

For Novelties by every steamer look in at L. B. Kerr's.

If you don't get your paper, ring up 841—The Independent.

For Paste Buckles, Steel Buckles and Gold Buckles, go to L. B. Kerr's.

President Dole has officially gazetted J. Alfred M. as a circuit judge.

Flowers, Feathers, and Jet Aigrettes are very much in evidence at L. B. Kerr's.

Guy Fawkes' day. Hasn't Mr. Hitchcock got a gun powder plot knocking about.

The Coptic from China and the Kinau from Hawaii are coming in as we go to press.

Genial Joe Marsden is 47 years old to-day. He is a day and a year behind the Mikado.

Ed. A. Williams has an advertisement in another column which is of interest to householders.

Miss Newman who acted as nurse for Dr. Brodie at his Waikiki sanatorium left in the Warrimoo yesterday.

It is stated that a certain high police official is using prisoners to whitewash the fence of his private residence.

Geo. P. Castle will in the future reside at the beautiful Castle residence at Waikiki and is now offering his Kinau homestead for sale.

Mr. Hatch will leave us to-morrow. He has "fixed" all the claims against the government. Why doesn't he remain and see the row out instead of sneaking off to Washington?

To-day is the anniversary of Guy Fawkes day. This would have been a proper date to pardon Bowler, Wilcox & Co. The "gunpowder" plot against them has never even been proven.

Something called the Sons of the Veterans is the latest addition to our local clubs. How many more associations, lodges, societies, clubs, etc., is unfortunate Hawaii to suffer under.

We are informed that the Marshal is employing outside help to take care of his "lively" police stable instead of using the service of the regular prisoners. Anything to spend money.

Minister Damon notifies the creditors of the government that he will pay the June debts to-morrow. Is His Excellency ready for all the claims entered against the treasury previous to that date?

Tom King is yet leading in the Advertiser bicycle contest. It is generally admitted that King, Angus and Sylvester will start the race. Giles and Dexter are both indisposed, and are "out" of the race.

In season or out of season every family should have a bottle of DIARRHOEA MIXTURE in the house. There is none better than DWIGHT'S, which has been dispensed by the HOLLISTER PHARMACY for the last twenty years.

Lawyer Davis, of Vancouver, left in the Warrimoo yesterday. He carried with him several hundred pages of evidence against Cranston and Mueller in their case vs. the C. & A. S. S. line and feels confident of winning—as long as his fee holds out.

A benefit was given at Sydney for Miss Annie Montague (Annie Cooke) and a very handsome amount was netted. The leading men and women of Sydney assisted in promoting the benefit concert for the famous singer. Sir William Manning at the close of the concert presented the beneficiary with a beautiful necklace from her pupils.

H. E. Cooper, a stranger who arrived here about three years ago has been appointed Minister of Foreign Affairs. The corps diplomatique is pleased to know that the Hawaiian Legislature has abandoned the title "Excellency." If they have any dealings with Minister (I) Cooper plain "Mister" is a good enough address.

The California Feed Company have received a large invoice of goods by the S. G. Wilder. They quote the lowest prices, and the finest qualities in all the lines, and give full weight. Amongst the lot are to be found, hay, oats, rolled barley, bran, corn, cracked corn, oil-cake, etc. Everything is of the freshest, and if you want to get the best and cheapest the California Feed Co. will hear from you.

The November Paradise

Editor Frank Hoogs of the Paradise of the Pacific has got the November number of his interesting monthly, out in time for mail. The number contains as usual some very fine illustrations, and some interesting reading matter. The editor has steered clear of Mr. P. C. Jones and his financiering in this issue, and has instead devoted his space to the Chief Justice.

This gentleman is honored by having a very handsome picture of him represented. The pince-nez and the buttonhole lend dignity to the features of the gentleman who is accused in fat type of being a "brilliant and able jurist."

We always suspected that he was all of that—in his own mind; but we feel assured of it now when we see in the columns of the Paradise that he "got there" by devoting two years to the study of law at Harvard. It is noteworthy that the "duffers" in Europe who become able and brilliant jurists generally devote the best years of their manhood to the study of law and jurisprudence. But of course as a rule they haven't got the brain power of the hero of this monthly Paradise of the Pacific and the other equally "able jurists" who infest Hawaii.

T. G. Thrum has written a very interesting article on the Commercial Developments of Hawaii. It contains many historical facts of more than passing interest.

As a whole the November number of the Paradise is a success and the editor is to be complimented on keeping the standard of the monthly up above par.

Full Bags.

Our local sportsmen are wearing pleasant smiles besides their guns and ordinary clothes. On Saturday and Sunday 809 plovers were bagged and the friends of the huntsmen ought to be happy. We have heard about 809 birds and we have seen most of the "friends," but every one of them tells us to ask the pertinent question where in — (Waipio) are the plovers?

A plover cooked in ti leaves a la Hawaiian after having been stuffed with butter, salt, pepper, and a little sherry or portwine is above as dainty a dish as can be procured in these islands.

Who slaughtered all those plovers, by the way?

The Late Mrs. Previer

(Translated from The Makanihana.)

On Friday afternoon, died at Kolu, the residence of Mrs. V. Ward, Mrs. Mark Previer, in the 85th year of her age. She was the widow of the brother of the late Mrs. James Robinson, and her maiden name was Luka Kaiaka. She brought up Mrs. Ward as an adopted daughter, who regarded her with an affection stronger than her own parents. She was born at Waikapu, Maui. Her parents of chiefly rank in that district were Kuupahohoe (k) and Kiolohe (w). She was the elder sister of the wife of the Rev. J. Kaunane and the mother of Robert Hoapili Baker.

Acquitted.

The first person tried before Judge Magoon and a jury yesterday was Geo. Houghtailing, charged with selling liquor without a license. The case occupied the time of the Hawaiian jury during the afternoon and resulted in an acquittal.

The charges against Houghtailing, Gibbs, and Pat Murphy for perjury were thrown out of court by the judge who failed to see any reason for the committal of the men.

The Hawaiian jury is in attendance to-day listening to a seduction case.

The Warrimoo.

The R. M. S. Warrimoo, Bird master, arrived yesterday afternoon from Australia. She left Sydney on the 21st of October and encountered fair weather during her passage. Among her passengers were Viscount Suidale, and the Honorable W. L. Allardye and George Smith. Mr. E. Davis, Q. C., and Mrs. Davis left by the steamer which departed last night for Victoria.
